CHIEF SECRETARY'S 12669 - 24 JUL 1916 OFFICE

Referring to my report of yesterday on above subject, I beg to submit attached
copy of poster exhibited in the City today.

So far permission
has not been given to hold the meeting in the City Hall, but it is thought that the necessary permission
will be granted at tomorrow's meeting of the Council.

Councillor Lane, who is to preside at the meeting, holds strong

For information.

The police arrangements stand good, but, in view of A, I think
the situation, as regards the Town Hall, looks more promising.

A wire has been received saying that the Corporation today unanimously agreed to give the City Hall for this meeting.

Submitted in connection with report submitted yesterday - I have no doubt but the Corporation will grant the use of the Hall at their meeting tomorrow.
